Socceroos may have new boss this week

Gutendorf, Rasic or the mystery man?

• Rudi Gutendorf

• Rale Rasic

The Australian Soccer Federation is expected to name its new national coach at the weekend.

ASF secretary Brian le Fevre said the announcement may be made from the Rushcutters Bay Travelodge in Sydney, where the executive committee meets on Saturday and Sunday.

Leading candidates are West German Rudi Gutendorf and another overseas coach whose identity is being kept secret.

Rale Rasic, who took Australia to the 1974 World Cup finals, is also being considered.

Mr le Fevre said shortly after ASF president Sir Arthur George returned from overseas this week that Sir Arthur would have talks with Rasic.

"Sir Arthur wants to give Rasic the opportunity of submitting his name for the job."

"He wants to talk to him to see if he is willing to meet the criteria," Mr le Fevre said.

He added there were no local applicants.

The national coach's appointment will be until the end of the 1981 World Cup qualifying series, and the ASF will have an option of his services until late 1982 should Australia reach the finals in Spain.

The man chosen for the job would start next month.

Sir Arthur talked with about 10 candidates during his overseas trip.

He went to the World Cup finals in Argentina and also visited England and Greece.

Leading candidate Rudi Gutendorf, 51, has coached MSV Duisburg, Schalke 04, VfB Stuttgart, Hamburger SV and Tennis Borussia in West Germany, FC Lucerne in Switzerland, Sporting Cristal in Peru, the Chilean national team, Valladolid in Spain and the St Louis Stars in the US.

He has also done developmental coaching in Tunisia, Trinidad, Botswana, Bolivia, Venezuela and Antigua.

The three faces of Ralph Coates

Cut-throat at the top

Only two points may separate the top four Philips League teams after the weekend round of matches.

That would be the situation if Marconi beats West Adelaide Hellas in Sydney and South Melbourne Hellas beats Hakoah-East in Melbourne, presuming

Hakoah wins its postponed game against Brisbane City next Sunday.

Points standing would then be: Marconi 29, W.A. Hellas 29, S.M. Hellas 28, Hakoah 27.

However, if West Adelaide beats Marconi, and Hakoah beats South Melbourne, the standings would be:

W.A. Hellas 31, Hakoah 29, Marconi 27, S.M. Hellas 26.

A two-page preview of the important West Adelaide v Marconi

match appears on pages eight and nine of this issue.

The South Melbourne v Hakoah match will be played at Middle Park on Saturday.

South Melbourne has lost one of its last nine matches. Hakoah has been beaten only once in 10 games.

The South Melbourne team may include Swedish second division striker Billy Bergman who is due to arrive tomorrow (Thursday).

The end for Armstrong

Jim Armstrong (pictured) retired last week, after having scored a Victorian State League record 152 goals.

Armstrong, 34, played for Hakoah, Hellas and Juventus during his 12 seasons in the league.

He was the league's top scorer in 1972 and 1974.

He also played 10 games for Victoria and six for Australia.

Armstrong's total of 152 is 60 more than that of J.U.S.T. striker Slobodan Zoraja who scored 92 goals.

Third in the all-time scorers' list is Billy Vojtek with about 90.

Armstrong's totals for each season: 1966 (half season): six; 1967: 19; 1968: 13; 1969: 14; 1970: seven; 1971: 14; 1972: 17; 1973: 13; 1974: 22; 1975: eight; 1976: eight; 1977: eight; 1978: two.

CROATIANS LOOK GOOD IN CUP

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Mighty Essendon Croatia should advance to the third round of the Philips Cup by beating Beograd at Hindmarsh Stadium in Adelaide tonight (Wednesday).

Croatia players are so confident after their dazzling performances in the Victorian State League, that they believe they can perhaps even win the Philips Cup.

Indeed, Croatia may prove the equal of quite a few Philips League teams.

John Gardiner and Steve Kokoska complement each other perfectly in the two centre back positions, and the midfield combination of Ken Murphy, Alan Kerr and Howard Andrews or Branko Culina, is well above average.

Up front, Tommy Cumming and Billy Vojtek score goals regularly while Carl Gilder keeps the opposing centre backs busy.

Beograd, struggling near the bottom of the South Australian First Division does not have the ability to beat Croatia, despite the presence of goalscorer John Kamleitner and former

Hennes Weisweiler recommends uhl'sport Double-Bandages

Double-bandages for sportsmen which are hard themselves but don't want to be pinched by uncomfortable bandages. Uhl'sport double-bandages are the solution of all problems regarding the slipping and pinching, for they are made of 2 layers which do not impede their function.

Layer A: is close to the skin and moves with the part of the body concerned.

This layer is very sweat-absorbent, wear-comfortable and resistant.

Layer B: takes up blows and scratches and also retains dirt. This layer is highly resistant and abrasion-proof, due to the special synthetic material.

The special structure of double bandages has many advantages:

1. Good fit and no slipping.
2. Comfortable wearing at the inside and high resistance at the outside.
3. On account of the two layers and special material they have a better elasticity than conventional bandages.

Uhl double-bandages are the best solution for sportsmen, orthopedically and medically.

HELL SAVAGES A POINT OF HELLAS

Jack Reilly, the ex-Socceroo goalkeeper, pulled off some brilliant saves to salvage a point for the visitors at Bosley Park.

By ALEX VESIC

Ray Richards (centre) and Jimmy Rooney argue with the referee during a recent match.

Marconi drove forward in the opening 10 minutes and looked poised to score an early goal. Roberto Vieri and Jimmy Rooney set up numerous raids on Reilly's goal but some poor finishing by the Marconi strikers kept the scoreline blank.

Then, against the run of play, Hellas scored the opening goal. Mark Jankovic attempted a back pass that landed at the feet of George Campbell. A quick cross by Campbell found unmarked Alan Evans some 10 metres from the Marconi line. The ex-Liverpool striker wasted no time in volleying

Videoocy!

If you were one of the multitudes glued to your idiot box for last week's edition of the 0-10 Network's "Top Soccer" you must be bemused and bewildered.

One of the featured games was the clash between Adelaide City and Eastern Suburbs Hakoah — to give them their full, registered and otherwise recognised titles.

Imagine, therefore, the surprise of armchair fans when anchorman Jim Barker, who had been referring to the "battles of the Cities".

He was talking about Adelaide City and "Sydney City", the name Hakoah had adopted NEXT season.

If that wasn't enough cause for confusion, when the match finally appeared on our screens, the scoreline continued to refer to Sydney City, while the commentator, Jim Barker, reviewing the league table, mentioned in fourth place, "Sydney City, or Eastern Suburbs Hakoah, whichever you may prefer".

Bravol We can only look forward with great anticipation to the coming weeks when we may be asked to express our preferences in many other ways.

For example:

- "You are now watching the 0-10 Network, or the 7 Network, but possibly the ABC, whichever you prefer."

- "Centre-forward Jee Bioggs has scored with a magnificent 25 metre shot, or was it goalie Billy Butterfingers throwing the ball into his own net from the penalty spot?"

- "That's it for the day on Philips Top Soccer, or the Coonabarabran Tiddlywinks Society's Amateur Hour, whichever tickles your fancy."

The humorous possibilities are endless, but the more serious is the issue, of course, that a television program which was created to entertain audiences and popularise soccer is maintaining its viewers by constantly referring to a club which simply does not exist at this time.

In the process 0-10 is harming whatever impact there may be in the planned public relations exercise which will accompany Hakoah's metamorphosis into Sydney City later this year. — PETER SCOTT the ball past a helpless Allan Maher.

Marconi 1 SM-Hellas 1

Marconi ran into further trouble when referee Bill Jones booked Vieri only a minute later. Vieri attempted a quick throw-in by throwing the ball at the back of Kalafatis and quickly taking the rebound to charge towards the visitors goal. The referee was quick to spot the "offence" and booked Vieri for "ungentlemanly conduct, maybe?"

Marconi continued to attack despite the early setback and were soon on top again.

Christopoulos was having trouble questioning Rooney, while Vieri continued to dominate play in mid-field partly because of some poor marking by Billy Rogers.

After 25 minutes, Marconi was on even terms.

A great series of passing which started with Rooney on the right flank saw the ball travel to an unmarked Paul Degney on the left flank. The Marconi fullback quickly centred to the far post, giving Jankovic a simple task of scoring.

However, Hagemanouli headed Jankovic from behind and the referee had no hesitation in awarding Marconi the penalty kick.

Reilly guessed, well, diving to his left, but could not stop a well-executed penalty kick by Vieri.

Five minutes later Vieri exposed the visitors' defence with a great pass to Peter Sharne, who ran past Kalafatis, then attempted to beat Reilly from an acute angle. The Hellas keeper, anticipating the cross, had to react quickly to stop the shot by Sharne.

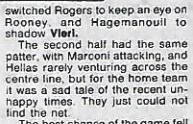

With five minutes to half time Degney found Vieri, who in turn quickly passed to Sharne. The young Marconi striker rounded Kalafatis, then curled the ball towards Reilly's left-hand corner. Although covered by many players who impaired his view, Reilly anticipated well to fingertip the ball away.

In the 42nd minute Reilly again saved brilliantly after a great shot by Vieri, then topped off his first half performance with a stunning save in the 43rd minute.

Degney was fouled by Kalafatis. A free kick, taken by Vieri, was headed towards the goal by Jankovic and it looked a certain goal. Reilly, who was moving away from the line to meet the cross, changed flight in mid-air to pounce on the ball just before it crossed the line.

While Reilly was having a great time in goal for the visitors, Billy Rogers capped a poor performance in the first half by being booked. It was an unfortunate booking for the real culprit seemed to have escaped the referee's eye.

Hagemanouli fouled Jimmy Rooney on numerous occasions attempting to stop the Marconi midfielder, while Rogers practically let Vieri have a free run of the park to stop the rot. Dave McLaren

Makeshift West

By MENO TOUTSIDIS

West Adelaide Hellas, decimated by injuries and suspension, crushed Brisbane City 2-0 to move a step closer to the PSL title.

But Hellas, who have won 10 of their last 12 games, meet their biggest test against Marconi at Hindmarsh Stadium on Sunday.

But Hellas, who have won 10 of their last 12 games, meet their biggest test against Marconi at Hindmarsh Stadium on Sunday.

Hellas have never beaten Marconi but it seems likely that they will end Marconi's domination.

Marconi beat Hellas 2-1 and 1-0 last year and 2-0 in Sydney last April.

Hellas took the field against Brisbane without Ian McGregor and Graham Honeyman (injured) and Graham Norris and Barry Reynolds (suspended).

Honeyman is still doubtful but the other three will return.

Their places were taken by John Batchelor who took over from Reynolds, Alex Zarvas and Nick Pantella who played in attack.

Hellas always had the measure of Brisbane but the fluency which had taken them to eight straight wins was missing.

Vic Bozanic had two great chances to score in the first half — first hitting a pldriver just over the bar and then kicking well wide with only the keeper to beat.

WA-Hellas 2-Brisb. C. 0

Brisbane had their moments but even though David Jones and Con Kampas were shaky in the first half they were still able to hold them out.

The second half continued where the first half had left off — poor passing and plenty of missed chances.

Pantella missed a certain goal in the opening minutes when he sprinted through Brisbane's defence but over-ran the ball at the crucial moment.

But Hellas finally shot ahead in the 63rd minute when Zarvas turned two defenders inside out and crossed to Pillans who headed powerfully past Kim Wishart.

Moments later Wishart made a fine save from a Neil McGachey pldriver and then saved again from Pillans.

Brisbane battled hard through Kevin Caldwell, and John Coyne but their midfield gave them little support.

Hellas wrapped up the match in the 77th minute when Batchelor found Pantella lurking near the far post and the nippy striker squared the ball to David Jones who lashed it past Wishart.

OUR SAY — We're all entitled to one mistake

The amount of ill feeling against Marconi is disturbing.

Because of one unfortunate error in judgement, Marconi is attracting some ugly opposition.

Consistent winners are praised because anything less would seem illogical. But when such winners experience a change in fortunes, the jackals are always ready to pounce.

So it is for outstanding players. They are praised lavishly when they are flying high, but they are mauled mercilessly when they show their human failings.

Marconi made the mistake of using Peter Sharne and Paul Degney in a league match, when those two players should have rested for the international against Greece the following day.

"Scandal!" cried one and all. Shame and shame again. Ill feeling against the club persists even now.

However, the Philips League has fined Marconi and the matter should now be forgotten.

Everyone is entitled to one mistake — and god knows, Australian clubs have made so many mistakes that they can't even remember them all.

Marconi as a club and as a team is a credit to Australian soccer. It owns its own ground, it has a profitable social club and its scientific and systematic approach to soccer development is second to none.

For these reasons, Marconi deserves to be taken back into the fold in the spirit of true sportsmanship.

Egyptians quit over punch-up

ALGIERS — The 240-strong Egyptian team at the third African Games quit and left for home on Sunday after a brawl with the Libyan soccer team.

The Libyans were expelled from the soccer tournament by the African Football Confederation which held them responsible for the brawl and accused them of bad behavior throughout the tournament.

The Egyptian participants in the Games left on orders from Prime Minister Mamedouh Salem who charged that Algeria as host country had failed to give the Egyptian team adequate protection.

Aigerian police took 10 minutes to stop the fighting which involved Libyan and Egyptian coaches and team officials as well as players.

The violence erupted after Egypt beat the Libyans 1-0 to reach the semi-finals of the soccer tournament.

The Egyptians had won six Gold, 22 Silver and 12 Bronze medals at the Games, but the Tunisians headed the medals table with 23 Gold, seven Silver and five Bronze medals.

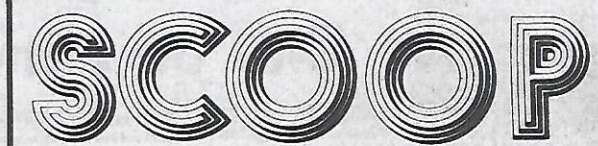

George Cross meets Canberra City at 6.45 pm and Hellas and Alexander clash at 8.45 pm.

Canberra is a formidable team, but if key players Ken Read, Norm Maitland, Rob Cullen, John Webb and Billy Wilkinson put in a special effort, we may see yet another State League team through to the second round.

The double header should draw close to 10,000 people — most of them Greek fans anxious to see the big match between Hellas and Alexander.

Alexander thrashed Hellas 4-1 a few weeks ago in a league match.

However, strengthened by Alun Evans and Frank Munro, Hellas looks set to get revenge.

Croatians look good in Cup

Mooroolbark player Wally Bojczuk.

Goza Farkas and Adrian Santrac — who scored both goals in Beograd's recent 2-2 draw with league leader Cumberland — are other leading lights in the Beograd team.

The remaining Philips Cup matches will be played next Wednesday in Melbourne and Newcastle.

Sydney Croatia, fresh from its tour of Canada and the U.S., will take on Newcastle KB Utd at the International Sports Centre in an afternoon match at 3 pm.

Croatia, led by player-coach Atilla Abonyi, and featuring Maurice Sullivan, John Russell, Peter Mullen and Marjan Kovacic, eliminated mighty Marconi on penalties in the first round, so it has a good chance of beating Newcastle as well.

Can't sent off, Byrne lacks top form

By LAURIE SCHWAB

After going 15 weeks without a victory, Canberra scored its third win in a row by beating J.U.S.T. 2-1 and is now set to boost its tally to 20 points by defeating Brisbane City at Bruce Stadium on Saturday.

However, Canberra will line up against Brisbane City without midfielder Jim Cant who was sent off in the 80th minute of the match against J.U.S.T.

Cant handled the ball deliberately after having been cautioned earlier.

Terry Byrne, who has missed six matches this season due to injury, reaffirmed his reputation as one of the league's finest strikers by scoring two goals set up for him by Roy Starke and having another disallowed because of a foul on goalkeeper Dennis Boland.

Ivan Gruljic was also menacing in attack and Tony Henderson — probably the most consistent player in the competition — had yet another fine game in midfield.

Coach Johnny Warren rates Henderson as even better in defence and believes that the big man should be included in the next World Cup squad as a centre back.

Brisbane City failed to beat West Adelaide Hellas despite the fact that Hellas played without Barry Reynolds, Ian McGregor, Graham Norris and Graham Honeyman, so it is unlikely to prevent Canberra from notching up only its second home win of the season on Saturday.

Cant's absence will be compensated for by the return of Ian Heywood, who missed the game against J.U.S.T. because he had the flu.

J.U.S.T., which meets rampaging St George in Sydney on Sunday, signed striker Bobby McGuinness on loan from South Melbourne Hellas last week.

McGuinness had three games for Motherwell in Scotland and about 30 for Portsmouth in England before he came to Australia early last year to play for Hakoah-Easts.

However, he managed only six appearances with Hakoah before he was transferred to Hellas for $5000 this year. He made six appearances for Hellas.

McGuinness and John Nicolais came on as substitutes when coach Cedo Cirikovic replaced Mando Ristovski (injured) and Joe Piccione at half time.

The score was 1-1 at the time, but without Piccione and Ristovski to help make the play, J.U.S.T. lost control of the midfield and had no one to play the long, penetrating ball that makes breakaway attacks possible.

J.U.S.T. has gone four weeks without a win, after beating giants Marconi and Hakoah 2-1 in successive matches.

The bad run seems to have drained the players of the confidence that enabled them to play with such verve earlier in the year.

So the problem is one of mental attitude, for the ability is certainly still there.

Whether they can get their confidence back for the clash with St George remains to be seen. One man who is confident of victory on Sunday is coach Cedo Cirikovic.

Warren will sign new players when he goes on an overseas scouting trip at the end of the season, and J.U.S.T. is overplaying locally and in England and Yugoslavia.

In the meantime, Canberra will strike trouble when full backs Danny Moulis and Mike Milovanovic leave for Canada and the US with the Australian schoolboys' squad next month.

One player who will come into the side is 17-year-old reserve Bernard Lulica, who was on the bench in Footscray.

J.U.S.T. should have gone to an impressive lead against Canberra in the first 15 minutes. Joe Palinkas scored for J.U.S.T. in the 10th minute, but was snuffed out by Ristovski, back goalkeeper Ron Tillet, but went just over the crossbar.

In the 11th minute Ristovski played a through ball for Dregan Vasic, who had been most dangerous to this point, but now Terry Byrne started breaking through as well.

A dangerous square ball from Palinkas found Piccione a little too wide on the other side and in trying to get the ball back, Piccione was beaten by Roy Starke.

Palinkas shot too high from 12 metres before Canberra managed to get a grip on the game.

Gruljic was the Canberra threat who had been most dangerous to this point, but now Terry Byrne started breaking through as well.

Byrne had a good header, but Boland and in the 35th minute he scored the equalising goal. Boland deflected Byrne's effort and the ball rebounded off the right hand of the keeper, but the ball did not cross the goal line. He was overruled.

As the first half drew to a close, Gruljic failed badly when he shot straight at Boland from only 15 metres.

In the 51st minute, Boland made the best save of the match, flying acrobatically to stop a powerful 25-metre drive from Tony Henderson.

J.U.S.T. managed only the occasional dangerous attack. In one of them, Dregan Vasic made a good run down the left and played the ball inside to Zoran Iliski. He relayed it to Nicolais, who shot wide.

In the 88th minute, Roy Starke crept down the left flank and lobbed over a great cross. Boland came out much too soon and missed.

Byrne seemed set to score his third goal as he stormed into the penalty area, but Boland threw himself down to block the shot.

Lulic hit the woodwork at the other end, just before referee Bambridge sent Jim Cant off the field.

Watch out Brisbane City! That's the warning Hakoah sounded out to the Philips Cup holder demoralising Sydney Olympic 4-0 at Wentworth Park.

Hakoah meets Brisbane City in the quarter-finals, with the venue still to be announced, and looks good enough to win the cup.

Hakoah turned on a polished display of attacking football and scored two goals in each half. Campbell, Souness and Stevenson had a picnic in midfield and front-runners Silva, Barnes and Watson enjoyed a glut of possession.

The Hakoah players were just so enthusiastic that Olympic rarely had a chance to mount a worthwhile attack.

It didn't take long for Hakoah to expose gaps in the Olympic defence and it was evident goalie Gary Meier was going to be in for a hectic time.

While Hakoah eased off a little they could have added a further two goals before half time. Campbell hit the woodwork and Meier pulled off a miraculous save from a Barnes drive.

Olympic striker Don Allan received a broken nose in the 63rd minute and his injury gave Hakoah a decided advantage. Olympic coach Joe Marston had made two early second-half substitutions and when Allan left the field Olympic were forced to play with 10 men.

A delicate Mullin cross led to a soft goal by Barnes and Hakoah were two goals ahead after 21 minutes.

Hakoah coach Gerry Chalid introduced Terry Smith to the forward line in the 66th minute and within the space of seven minutes he had sent Hakoah rocketing to a four-goal lead.

Smith followed home a Stevenson chip in the 68th minute and added his second goal five minutes later from a Trenter free kick.

Olympic goalie Meier pushed the ball on to the post, but it rebounded into play where Souness flicked it to Smith and he was prepared with the easiest of goals which referee Tim Davies recorded.

Roy Starke

Boden sparkles but United falters again

By JOE LANZONI

Lack of concentration for a 15-minute period later in the second half once again cost Newcastle United a valuable point.

After leading 2-0 late in the second half and doing comfortably, Newcastle let the game slip away to its opponents and close up the gap quickly. When it does that it can beat any team in the competition.

However Newcastle can become a very ordinary side when it lets the opposition dictate the game.

The signs were on the wall last Saturday with 15 minutes to go when Newcastle's midfield trio of Craig Mason, John Sneddon and Bill Avey started to drop back to the edge of their penalty area and allow their more skilful opponents the room they had been denied for the whole game.

Adelaide's midfield of Agnec Munk, John Perin and John Bear (who had moved into midfield in the 62nd minute when Zoran Matic was brought on into the centre of the defence to allow Brian Northcote to replace Robert Marne on the right wing) relied on the extra freedom and continuously stretched the Newcastle defence with probing passes to John Nyakohus and Brian Northcote on the wings.

It was from one of these raids on the left that the last Newcastle goal was scored. The ball was floated into the penalty area where Robert Marne should have scored but he managed to push the ball past the post.

The vocal Newcastle supporters hotly disputed a ruling by referee Toni Boskovic in the 34th minute when another bit of Boden magic took him past three defenders only to be brought down in the penalty area when in full flight. Boskovic inexplicably awarded an indirect free kick inside the penalty area for what should have been a penalty.

The closest Adelaide went to scoring was in the 41st minute when a free kick taken by Agnec Munk on the right. The ball was floated into the penalty area where Robert Marne should have scored but he managed to push the ball past the post.

The second half continued in the same vein, with Newcastle keeping Adelaide continually off balance.

In the 85th minute Newcastle made it 2-0. Once again Boden was the man responsible when he dispossessed Zoran Matic and broke away with only Marshall to beat. Boden had no trouble in rounding the advancing keeper and as he was ready to tap the ball into an empty net Marshall managed to trip him.

It was time Boskovic could not deny the penalty and Boden converted from the spot kick, to make it 2-1.

That should certainly have been a winning margin. However, once again it proved that the game is not won until the last whistle.

This Sunday Newcastle travels to Brisbane to meet Brisbane Lions in the first leg of the World Cup semi-final. Willis will one-week suspension. Willis will certainly resume at right back, allowing Col Curran to revert to his customary left back position.

The rest of the team should be unchanged.

Lions have their eyes set on a semi final spot and so it could result in a great game.

Woodhouse the hero

WESTERN SUBURBS 1 (Eaton) ST GEORGE 0 at Wentworth Park.

Player Ratings by John Taylor
WESTERN SUBURBS: Woodhouse 9, Skellern 6, Wilson 9, Turnbull 7, Rowden 6, Harding 6, Stone 7, O'Donnell 6, Vernon 6 (Scott 62nd), Eaton 7, Fisher 6 (Samuels — 60th).

ST GEORGE: Coe 6, Harris 7, Gresse 7, Ulfenovic 8, Terry 6, Coates 7, J. O'Shea 6 (Jones — 62nd), Hensman 8, Morgan 6, O'Connor 8.

Western Suburbs can thank teenage goalkeeper Greg Woodhouse as they are still in contention for the Philips Cup.

It was absolutely amazing how West's survived this second round cup tie against St George at Wentworth Park.

Apart from Clive Eaton's match-winning header in the fourth minute, it was the only time Wests looked like scoring.

St George dominated for practically 80 minutes of the game, yet luck just wasn't on their side.

Courageous goalkeeping by Woodhouse and determined defence by Wilson thwarted St George's hopes.

Woodhouse, who is growing in confidence, made four magnificent first-half saves.

He was brave on the ground, charging out and blocking shots from Hensman, Morgan and O'Shea.

Hensman shouldn't have given Woodhouse a chance to pull off the first save. The speedy Saints winger hand plenty of space to direct the ball past Woodhouse, but he directed his shot straight at the young custodian.

That was a vital chance missed because Saints could have been on level terms after six minutes.

With John O'Shea, Coles, O'Connor and Ulfenovic creating some effective moves, the chances still came for St George in the second half.

Three of City's Cup matches

Connor, Silva in fiery form

By PETER SCOTT

What seemed unthinkable just a few weeks ago is now a distinct possibility. Hakoah, only recently struggling for a spot in the top four, has its eyes firmly set on retaining the Phillips League championship they won last year.

At least, this was the mood in the jubilant dressing room after the thorough 3-0 whacking handed out to Wests in last Sunday's Wentworth Park clash.

"I don't want to hear about scores in the other matches," coach Gerry Chalid proclaimed. "If we keep winning and playing like this, they can't stop us."

Without doubt, the talented Blues have hit top gear at just the right time and — whether Chalid worries about them or not — the results in matches involving their closest rivals have all been the right ones in recent weeks.

The decisive period, however, comes this week and next.

Following the two matches against South Melbourne Hellas and Brisbane City this weekend, and the vital home fixture against West Adelaide Hellas the next, we should all know whether the Hakoah revival has been left too late or not.

Whichever the case, Hakoah's rejuvenation has added much interest and tons of spectacular football to the last quarter of an immensely exciting championship season.

Against Wests Hakoah continued where they left off in their

Hakoah 3

West Subs. 0

Cup win over Olympic two days earlier.

Seeing Western Suburbs' lacklustre display against St. George on the Friday, many suspected that they were saving themselves for the match against Hakoah.

Unfortunately for their fans, Hakoah had just too much skill, initiative and football know-how on the day, gaining resounding revenge for the first round defeat Peter Wilson's team had inflicted on them.

Wests tried their skill. When this failed, they did not hesitate to turn on the "he-man" stuff, but to no avail.

Even a player of the technical ability of Warren Turnbull decided to show a bit of muscle after half time, which is unusual for him.

Not all of the Western Suburbs squad were failures, though. Young Ian Rowden, at left back, had a great tussle with Joe Watson for most of the game with honors split just about evenly.

Rowden — strong, confident and disciplined — is a player to watch.

Most of the stars of the day were to be found in the champions' ranks:

Todd Clarke in goal, playing with all the authority which made him Australia's number one keeper, John Stevenson, who had a hand in two of the goals, or Murray Barnes, who is playing with all his old gusto again.

Three stood out even among all the good players. There was Steve O'Connor, who almost unnoticed, has developed into one of Australia's top defenders this season, using to good effect his unmatched speed and agility.

Hilton Silva, was his usual brilliant self again on the left wing and, now in his eighth season with Hakoah and the doyen of the playing staff, the magical Brazilian must be the club's best buy in over a decade.

The third of this outstanding trio was Marconi discard Ernie Campbell, whose bustling, no-holds-barred style in the middle of the attack completely threw Peter Wilson off his game.

In fact, Campbell will be happy to hear that he has now achieved permanent status in the team.

Although his rival for the position is much-learned sharpshooter Terry Smith, Chalid confided after the final whistle that last Sunday's team is the one which will take on "all comers" for the championship honors — barring injuries, illness or sudden loss of form.

Hakoah's goals were all of the crowd-pleasing variety, inspiring the supporters to noisy rejoicing for most of the 90 minutes.

Murray Barnes latched on to a Stevenson cross which was fumbled by Greg Woodhouse in the 41st minute, only to see his shot blocked on the line.

All wasn't lost, though, as Ian Bouness pounced on the loose ball to slam it into the net.

As Hakoah's midfield firmly established its domination after the interval — and with Thomson, Mullen and O'Connor keeping an iron grip on the league's leading scorers, Clive Eaton and Alan Fisher — it was no surprise to see Hakoah's tally increase in the 52nd minute.

The spirited Stevenson played a prominent part again, taking on Wests' defence to win a 50-50 ball, sending over a glorious cross from the right wing.

Campbell came steaming through in gravity-defying fashion to head it past the beleaguered Woodhouse.

With just 10 minutes left to play, Joe Watson did a cheeky dummy in front of goal, allowing Silva to hook in a half-chance to make the final score 3-0.

If Hakoah maintains the fine form they displayed in their Cup and league fixtures last week, Melbourne fans will be in for a treat at Middle Park on Saturday.

Will fortune favor the team which is now being coached to a peak by Gerry Chalid, or are the two points to go to the team Dave MacLaren has recruited at a cost of tens of thousands of dollars this year?

We'll all be wiser in a few days.

Coates helps crush Alexander

By CON NIKOLOPOULOS

The impact of its third successive defeat has left the Fitzroy Alexander camp shattered. And what is more painful for coach John Margaritis is the realisation that he has little hope of returning to the top four.

Furthermore last Sunday's performance confirmed the coach's claims that the team needs at least three players with the inspiring personality of Doug Ufford or Jim Hermiston or Roberto Vieri.

It is exceedingly obvious that heads will roll shortly on the defending line, which was mainly responsible for this big defeat.

Although Margaritis declined to name players, it does not require great effort to foresee that the axe will drop on the centre of the defence.

It was the defence that allowed a reformed St. George to take command of the game.

And then the rout started. Brendan Grosse, lurking on the left corner of the area, side-footed into the net a corner by Jones that Morgan back-headed to him.

Locked in defence, Fitzroy could only rely on quick breakaways through Gary Cole.

The blond flash was denied the equaliser on the 24th minute when, clear of the defence, he was miraculously intercepted by Saints' captain George Harris.

Neville Morgan must have nightmares about the goal he missed in the 3rd minute, shooting from inside the 6-yard box onto Blasby's body.

Terry took away the small spark left in Fitzroy with a second goal. Well-positioned, he robbed Provan of the ball and beat Blasby in a two-man confrontation.

Fitzroy showed a bit of effectiveness on the 39th minute when lone fighter Branko Buljevic headed a corner down for Micevski. Both he and Campbell ran onto the ball and it was Micevski who pushed it into the net from an obvious off-side position.

The right Linesman was quick to signal referee Tony Bezielich, who disallowed the goal.

Despite the home team's attacking spree during the first quarter of the second half, their only consolation was a goal after 9 minutes from Gary Cole.

With the game balanced, Fitzroy became unexpectedly adventurous and the whole team moved into attack hoping to get the equaliser. It was then that their weakness in defence became more apparent.

Hensman failed on two occasions to take his team further ahead but Hensman finally beat Blasby with a pile-driver following good lead up by John O'Shea.

The supreme Ralph Coates capped a good performance with the fourth goal of the game in the dying minutes. From a cross by Hensman.

Hughes crossed, John Neale, who had jumped for possession in the goalmouth, Paul Leszlo stabbed at the ball and missed and Geoff Morris followed up to despatch past Gary Meier.

Dave McIntosh equalised meeting an Ainslie corner with his head.

Lownds appeared to be impeded by one of his own defenders and the ball nipped in under the bar.

Socceroo Col Bennett, did not play for Lions as he had been injured at work, but it made no difference, as it was Lions' bad finishing which let them down.

— BRUCE WADELL

Lions 1, Olympic 2.

Sydney Olympic probably sounded the death knell of Brisbane Lions' Semi-Final hopes with a 2-1 win at Perry Park, after being under continuous pressure for most of the second half.

It has happened before and will most certainly happen again, Lions constantly stormed the Olympic goal, an effort which proved fruitless as the Sydney side bounced back to snatch the winner a minute from full-time.

To do so, they had to rely on a defender, centre-half Richie Bell, who broke down the left, deep in his own half to score.

The first half, which ended 1-1, was more even although it was almost totally lacking in excitement.

Lions scored first in the 31st minute when Jim Hermiston, began the move by sweeping a great pass out to Alan Hughes on the left wing.

Margaritis faces a challenge

By Kyle Patterson

South Melbourne Hellas' importation of top players Alun Evans, Frank Munro and Bill Bergmann presents manager Dave Maclaren with a problem — who does he drop to make way for his new stars?

One player who's served Hellas and Maclaren so well this season is Margaritis Hagegmanouli, but now the young full back faces competition for his hard-won place in Melbourne's top team.

Professional soccer — which is slowly emerging in the Philips Soccer League — has no sentiment, and Margaritis (Michael to his friends) realises the situation. "The players Hellas has bought are good professionals," said Hagegmanouli, "and will be a great help to the club. I'm not worried that we now have five players going for the four positions in defence. I've got the enthusiasm to fight for my place. If there's someone challenging for my spot then I will push myself harder."

"I'm not scared to take on big name players." Hagegmanouli's confidence and determination can't be questioned. At the start of this season he was at the crossroads and the general feeling was that he wouldn't make the Hellas team. Maclaren was quoted in the press as saying he was looking for a new left back.

However, Margaritis accepted the challenge, put on some dazzling displays in practice games, and Maclaren was most pleased to announce that Hagegmanouli would be given the full back position. Margaritis picks up the story.

"Dave watched Hellas' last game of the 1977 season against Western Suburbs to judge some of the players," he said. "When he took over at the start of the following season he told seven or eight players that they weren't wanted anymore. I knew I would have to do my very best to win a place in the team."

"Later Dave helped me improve my game. He's a tremendous coach."

However, now Margaritis must prove himself again. Unlike so many of the other Hellas players, Hagegmanouli came in the back door so to speak. He joined Hellas from Fort Melbourne, from the depths of the Metropolitan League, in 1976. He'd spent three years with Port Melbourne.

"I joined Port when I came from Greece," he said. "I played the first two seasons at centre half, but switched to centre forward in the third year. In the first four games of that season I scored 13 goals, and then Hellas bought me."

Hagegmanouli is one of only three players in the current Hellas squad who wasn't transferred from other big clubs.

The others are Chris Kalafatis (Hellas junior) and George Christopolous (from Coburg).

The big time men of Hellas are Jack Reilly (from Alexander), John Hansen (Helsingborg, Sweden), Mike Pye (Ringwood), Stuart Baxter (Helsingborg, Sweden), Bertie Lutton (Eastern Suburbs Hakoah), Sammy Wright (Wolves, England), Billy Rogers (A.P.I.A. Sydney), Frank Munro (Celtic, Scotland), Chris Kent (Ringwood), Duncan Cummings (Melbourne), George Campbell (Aberdeen, Scotland), Alun Evans (Walsall, England) and Bill Bergmann (Sweden).

The cost of some of Hagegmanouli's illustrious team mates add up to $70,000. Kalafatis and Christopolous have both represented Australia, making Margaritis look like a working boy among millionaires!

Hagegmanouli's claim to fame is that he spent three years with big Greek club Paok, rubbing shoulders with the likes of Koudeas and Nicolaides.

However, Margaritis is probably happy that he doesn't have to face up to George Campbell his Hellas team mate, whom he rates highly.

"We've got a chance of winning it," said Margaritis, "but we have some very tough games remaining. If we don't win it we'll come very close."

Lightning series set, Warragul wins the league

Warragul United, back row, from left: J. Slimmonds, M. Gravner, N. Tymkin, T. Boyes, G. Werencya, D. O'Dea, J. Gallagher. Front row: G. Smith, C. Byers, G. Ritchie, I. Tappscott, I. Batchelor.

The Latrobe Valley Soccer League lightning premiership will be played under lights at Traralgon on Sunday, July 30.

Eight teams will compete, with the first game kicking off at 6 pm. The final is at 10 pm.

The teams have been divided into two groups of four, and will play on a league basis, with the winners of each group progressing to the final. Games will be 10 minutes each way.

The draw is — Group One — Pegasus v Traralgon (6 pm), Fortuna v Newborough (6.40 pm), Traralgon v Newborough (7.20 pm), Fortuna v Pegasus (8 pm), Traralgon v Fortuna (8.40 pm), Newborough v Pegasus (9.20 pm).

Group Two — Moe v Monash (6.20 pm), Churchill v Rangers (7 pm), Monash v Rangers (7.40 pm), Churchill v Moe (8.20 pm), Monash v Churchill (9 pm), Rangers v Moe (9.40).

Warragul Utd has won the Second Division west championship and will play off against Second Division east winners (still to be decided) for a place in the First Division.

Warragul has made a remarkable comeback by winning its league. Five years ago the club's senior section disbanded but re-entered the L.V.S.L. three years ago. The club was originally founded 14 years ago, but struggled for a long time in an Australian Rules stronghold.

This season Warragul didn't lose a game, building up a goal average of 78 for, 17 against. The club has six junior teams, and the under 16 side is on top of its league. The club's reserve team finished second.

Warragul has the chance to add to its successes this season, for the team is in the semi finals of the Dougan Trophy and Express Shield.

George Ritchie, who's with the Warragul club, is one of the pioneers of Latrobe Valley soccer. He's a foundation member of Warragul, coaches the under 16 team and played many fine games in the first team.

West Adelaide v. Marconi

PETER SI DAVE P THE KE

By Kyle I

Despite Marconi's dramatic fall from the top of the Philips League, the Italian-backed Sydney team goes into its vital top-of-the-table clash with West Adelaide Hellas with a big psychological advantage — it has beaten Hellas every time the two have met.

As well as this mental barrier, the men of the West Adelaide may have to face the imposing physical barrier of Domingo Ielamo, Marconi's newly-signed central defender from top Argentinian club Huracan.

West Adelaide has the advantage of playing on its home ground with the considerable vocal support of Adelaide's Greek community.

This may swing the pendulum in Hellas's favor.

However, there's one thing that's sure — neither team can afford to lose this game. The situation at the top of the P.S.L. is so tight that one slip could mean the end of a team's bid for the Australian championship.

Unlike last season, when Marconi and Eastern Suburbs Hakoah were a long way ahead of the pack, four teams are still in with a chance of lifting the title this season. Without a doubt, Hellas and Marconi would do their chances a big favor by taking both points this weekend, but there can be only one winner.

If Marconi can overcome West Adelaide, it has a great chance of lifting the premiership. Its last four games are against teams well out of the running for the title or the final four.

On top of that, three of the four games are in Sydney in Newcastle. Marconi's are — v West (Hindmarsh Stadium) Canberra City (Boss v St. George (Barton Sydney Olympic Sydney) and v New national Sports Field.

In comparison, West home includes clashing other champions Hakoah, Marconi and Hellas.

If West Adelaide victorious against those opponents, it thorough champion.

The Adelaide club's are — v Mar Stadium, Adelaide (Wentworth Park, Sydney Suburbs (Hindmarsh Adelaide), v South (Middle Park, Melbourne Adelaide City, Jun Sports Field, Adelaide.

Rasic and against ec

For Jim Adam, the man in the soccer wilderness earlier this season, this week is crucial.

Adam, the perky Scot with the gleaming smile, can ensure his name goes down in South Australian Soccer history by guiding West Adelaide to a win over Marconi as a prelude to winning the Philips League championship.

If West Adelaide wins the title, S.A. soccer will be able to stand tall after being overshadowed by eastern neighbours Victoria and New South Wales for so long.

West Adelaide's meteoric rise to the top of the P.S.L. ladder started when Adam took over from John Margaritis, who resigned. Before Adam had been out almost a year.

Adam learned his English League, playing many seasons with Luton and Stoke City. Australia and play Melbourne Hellas, a Victoria and Australia coached Preston Marconi, Melbourne a Kilda.

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Melbourne Soccer Club, previously called Melbourne-Hungaria and still sponsored by the Hungarian community, is on the road to recovery, holding top position on the Victorian Second Division ladder.

Club president George Gyoerffy, a solicitor, and manager-coach Ken Kontra, are laying a sound foundation for the future with a team of young players who will improve from year to year.

Having played at various venues, including Elwood Reserve, Elsternwick Oval, Murphy Reserve in Port Melbourne, McDonald Reserve in Hawthorn and, of course, Middle Park, the club now hopes to get a permanent ground.

Melbourne will have a new home next season and in 1980, it hopes to buy its own ground and establish a social club.

"After that, there'll be no looking back," Mr Gyoerffy said.

A businessmen's club is being formed to raise money and to run the club along professional lines.

For Melbourne has a proud history to live up to.

The pinnacle of the club's achievement came in 1967 when it won the Victorian State League championship and the Australia Cup, beating APIA 4-3 in the final, with Attila Abonyi scoring three goals.

Some of the great players in that team were:

HENRY SURMA: goalkeeper, who went to Noumea with the Australian under 23 team in 1967.

TOM FOWLER: right back, a former Scottish junior.

TONY GREGAL: left back, who played in Scotland with St. Mirren and later joined Albion Leyland.

IAN SHANK: right half, came through the club's junior ranks and later played for Frankston and Doveton.

ALISTAIR SCOTT: centre back, later playing-coach. State representative who won the 1965 "Sporting Globe" best player award.

FRANK MCCANN: right winger, former Glasgow junior who later played for Albion Leyland.

FRANK STOFFELS: centre forward, died recently. Came from Wilhelmnia and scored many goals for Melbourne in the 1967 season.

PETER KURTA: inside left, Hungarian-born, came through Melbourne's juniors.

COLIN MYERS: left winger, took part in Australian team trials in 1967.

Coach of that mighty 1967 team was Bill Walsh, the former Manchester City player now coaching Sunshine City.

To reach the Australia Cup final that year, Melbourne beat Launceston 2-1, Croatia (Vic) 2-0 and Juventus (Vic) 2-0.

The 1967 State League ladder finished like this:

	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
Melbourne	16	2	4	47	16	34
Juventus	14	4	3	39	21	32

Joe Andrey was the first president.

Melbourne started by winning the Metropolitan South Division in its first season, and gaining promotion to First Division South. The ladder at the end of the season looked like this:

	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
Melbourne	17	1	0	143	18	35
Croatia	12	3	3	44	22	27

Princes Vale	2	0	16	17	104	4
SHH	1	0	17	6	89	2

In 1958, Melbourne finished fourth in First Division.

Team lost nine men from 1977

Melbourne's success this year is quite remarkable considering the team building that was necessary.

Coach Ken Kontra lost nine players from last year's squad:

Joe Kise, who transferred to Western Suburbs;
Savko Vasic, to Footscray J.U.S.T.;
Stewart Fowler, to Croydon;
Sean Rooney, to Hakoah;
George Kotarida, unable to play due to business commitments;
Joe Vonja, retired;
David Hull, moved to Canberra;
Karl Erdog, unable to play due to studies;
Peter Mihajly, last year's captain, had a knee operation.

Kontra then set about rebuilding the team, and came up with:

Billy Rae and Sergio Tribuzio from Albion Leyland;
Hansen Liu, the former Slavia player, bought from Morwell Falcons;
Alan Lee, from Sunshine City;
Paul Thompson from England;
John Kennedy from Essendon Croatia and Stjepan Jurina, former Dinamo Zagreb player, who joined from the Provisional League.

IS ON THE WAY BACK

sion South, behind Yarra Park, South Melbourne and Richmond, but the following year it won the championship and was promoted to State League.

The ladder at the end of 1959 was:

	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
Melbourne	17	1	0	100	19	35
Richmond	13	1	4	72	27	27
Yarra	13	1	4	63	35	27
St. Helens	12	2	4	47	24	26
Brighton	9	2	7	41	34	20

Prakran	3	2	13	22	71	8
PK Hawks	3	0	15	30	87	6
Vic Police	1	3	14	21	79	5

In 1960, playing at Murphy Reserve in Port Melbourne, the club came third in the State League — a great achievement for a team newly-promoted.

Polonia won the championship with 37 points. George Cross was runner-up with 36 and Melbourne had 26 points.

The stars of Melbourne's early era included Vernal, Garrett, Bora, Fekete and Voros.

Outstanding players of later years included Steve Blekany, Billy Rogers (now SM-Hellas), Ray Pocock (now Sunshine), Duncan Cummings (now SM-Hellas), Ian McCarthy (now Green Gully), Fabian Juhasz, Joe Szabo (now Kellor-Austria), Ivan Kerl, Joe Palinkas (now J.U.S.T.), Andy Segi (now Green Gully), Bill McGowan, John Wallace and Jim Pearson, who played for Australia.

From 1961 until 1966, Melbourne was a middle-of-the-table team, until the memorable success of 1967.

Rale Rasic, the present Marconi coach, had in 1969 led Footscray J.U.S.T. to the State League championship. In 1970, he took over as coach of Melbourne and led his new team to second place on the ladder, behind all-conquering Juventus.

Melbourne's present coach Ken Kontra took over from Rasic in 1971 and despite the handicaps of Pocock and Kerl leaving to join Canterbury in Sydney, Rogers joining Auburn and Bob Dobbing breaking a leg, Kontra managed to steer Melbourne into fourth place.

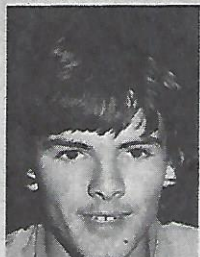

Kontra was also Victorian State coach that year, and Juhasz, Szabo, Scott and Blekany were among the State players.

In 1972, when well-known soccer writer Jim Barker was secretary of the club, Melbourne finished third behind Hellas and George Cross, and in 1973, it won the Ampol Cup.

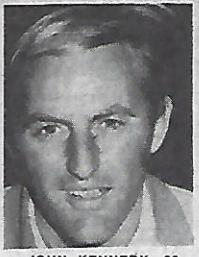

But then, the club started sliding downhill. In 1974, it finished eighth and in 1975, the year before the start of the Philips League, Melbourne came last and was relegated to the First Division.

Melbourne didn't do particularly well in the next two years, although it reached the Federation Cup final in 1977.

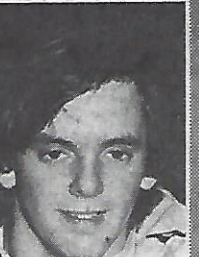

But Kontra had come back by then, and under his guidance, Melbourne is winning regularly and steering a true course towards promotion and a brighter future.

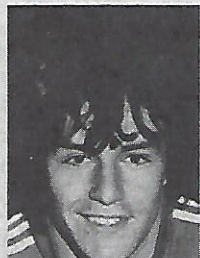

ERNE TOTH, 17, goalkeeper, from juniors, under 18 schoolboys' representative last year.

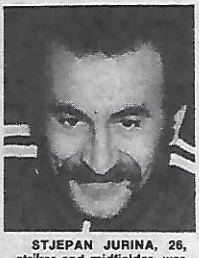

JOHN KENNEDY, 33, goalkeeper, bought recently from Essendon-Croatia. Previously played for Hellas, Alexander, Wilhelmina and APIA.

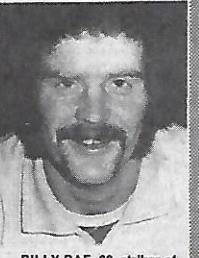

ATTILA TOTH, 18, midfielder, from juniors.

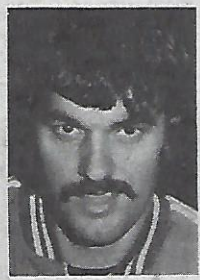

TOM VUKOVIC, 16, utility player, from juniors.

STJEPAN JURINA, 26, striker and midfielder, was a reserve player with Dinamo Zagreb in Yugoslavia, and also had four first team games there.

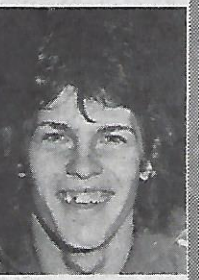

BILLY RAE, 28, striker of midfielder, bought from Albion Leyland this year. Previously played for Hakoah.

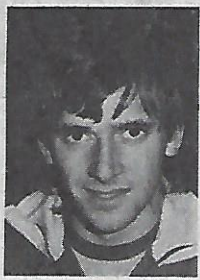

SERGIO TRIBUZIO, 29, striker, from Albion Leyland this year.

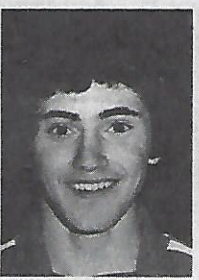

RALPH BAKER, 19, midfielder from Milwall in England.

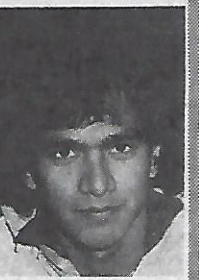

GEORGE CSIFO, 17, defender, from juniors.

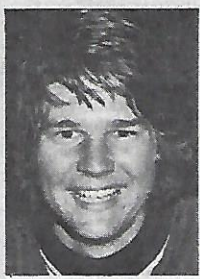

TIBOR CSIK, 20, striker from juniors.

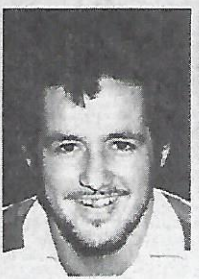

PHIL DIAMANTARIS, 18, full back from juniors.

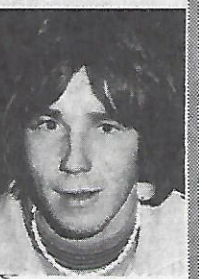

HANSEN LIU, 25, sweeper from Morwell Falcons.

PAUL DRINOCZKI, 17, stopper, represented Victoria under 18 in Queensland this year.

PAUL THOMPSON, 21, player amateur soccer in Liverpool, England.

ALAN LEE, 20, striker, from Sunshine City.

KEN KONTRA, coach, former Victorian Director of Coaching and coach of the State team in memorable games against Moscow Dynamo (0-0) and the Welsh FA XI (2-1). Has coached Fernree Gully, St. Albans, and Slavia among others.

BILL NADAY, assistant coach, acknowledged as an expert at developing young players.

Sannipoli out!

Juventus (Vic) midfielder Lou Sannipoli has withdrawn from the Australian schoolboys squad that will tour Canada and the U.S. next month. Sannipoli has failed to recover fully from a leg injury sustained during the pre-season Ampol Cup.

CLUB AND LEAGUE ADDED IN NTH NSW

The Northern NSW Soccer Football Federation has announced a plan to introduce two new State-wide competitions in 1979.

Both will be run in addition to the existing Rothmans divisional championships.

It is envisaged that the eight clubs that will take part in the new league, one will be based at Gosford, one in the Lake Macquarie district, one in Newcastle, one on the Coalfields, one each at Tamworth, Lismore, Coffs Harbour and perhaps Taree.

Applications to join the new league will be sought from all parts of Northern NSW, namely, Central Coast, Lake Macquarie, Newcastle, Hunter District, New England, Richmond, Tweed, Northern Rivers and Lower North Coast.

The eight teams accepted for the new league will play two rounds of home-and-away fixtures supported by an under-18 competition.

The second proposed competition is an F.A. Cup-type knockout tournament involving nominated teams from the areas mentioned above. These include the clubs involved in the Rothmans League and perhaps selected amateur clubs.

It is envisaged that of the eight clubs that will take part in the new league, one will be based at Gosford, one in the Lake Macquarie district, one in Newcastle, one on the Coalfields, one each at Tamworth, Lismore, Coffs Harbour and perhaps Taree.

The proposal is expected to fit in with the Federation's plan to establish Regional Directors of Coaching throughout the area to work in conjunction with State Director of Coaching, Alan Vest.

For further information, contact the President of the Northern NSW Soccer Federation, Mr Harley Dixon, phone 54 8666 (office hours).

$60,000 FROM NEW SCHEME

The Northern N.S.W. Soccer Football Federation has signed an agreement that will bring over $60,000 into local soccer during the next 12 months.

The agreement is with the Australian Sports Development and Promotion Programme Ltd.

The programme, the first of its type in the world, is funded by brokerage earned from private motor car insurance and household insurance throughout Australia.

Usually, no-one is required to change their insurances from one insurance company to another and all people are encouraged, where sport will benefit, to renew their insurances with their existing insurance companies.

Participation is free and everyone with existing private motor car or private household insurance policies or wishing to take out insurances in these two classes may participate.

Well-known Newcastle and Gosford insurance brokers, Russell & Spencer Ltd. are representing the programme and anyone wishing to assist soccer can make enquiries through Mr Tony Thomas or Mr Ivor Thirlwell at Russell & Spencer Pty. Ltd. or direct to the Australian Sports Development & Promotion Programme, 409 St Kilda Road, Melbourne, 3004 — phone (03) 267 3585.

The donation from the programme on an average policy is approximately $10, therefore each 1000 policies completed are worth approximately $10,000 to the sport of the policyholder's choice.

There is no additional cost involved above that of the normal insurance transaction.

The programme will provide funds for provision of coaches, equipment and facilities for juniors, special training in selected areas, promotion of events, assistance for club, State, national and international competition and in conjunction with the Northern N.S.W. Federation will have the prime objective of developing and promoting soccer in the Northern N.S.W. area.

Over the next 12 months more than $1 million will be donated to sport in Australia and in 1980 it is projected that $3,500,000 will be provided to assist development and promotion of sport.

To encourage people to place their name on the programme register to assist soccer. The Federation has announced details of a trip for two to the Casino in Hobart, plus $100 spending money.

All you need to do is place your name, and car or home policies, on the programme registers and a lucky draw will be made of the winners on September 4.

Local soccer clubs will also be conducting their own smaller incentive competitions with prizes to include dinners for two at selected restaurants, free rent-a-car for one week, dinner with the president and your favourite player from your club, plus many other prizes.

The programme operates on a national basis and was developed by Mr Bruce Hulley and Mr Graeme Trew from Melbourne.

ΦΙΛΟΦΡΟΝΗΣΕΙΣ ΣΤΗΝ ΕΛΛΑΔΑ

Τά τελευταία μεταγραφικά γεγονότα ή καλύτερα οι «μεταγραφικές βόμβες» που έσκασαν στην Ελλάδα προκάλεσαν τρομερό ενδιαφέρον όχι μόνον εντός αλλά και εκτός Ελλάδος, ιδιαίτερα εδώ στην Αυστραλία όπου οι Έλληνες φίλαθλοι παρακολουθούν πάντοτε τις ποδοσφαιρικές κινήσεις στην πατρίδα από τις εφημερίδες.

Ήταν λοιπόν επόμενο για την στήλη να αφιερώσει για σήμερα την τοπική ποδοσφαιρική σκηνή και να στραφεί προς τα ποδοσφαιρικά πράγματα της Ελλάδος μιά και δεν ξμεινε άουγκνίντ από τις περιφημες «βόμβες» των μεταγραφών.

Φυσικά οι μεταγραφές που συγκλόνισαν δεν ήταν για παίκτες από την Άργεντινή —γιατί δεν πᾶνε εκεί οι ομάδες;— ούτε για νεαρούς ταλαντούχους. Ήταν για τις μετακινήσεις τριών παικτών πο άουγκνίντ στους ποδοσφαιρικούς κύκλους της Ελλάδος με θέματα άπειθαρχίας και της τιμωρίας τους. Φυσικά μιλάμε για τους Δομάζο, Άντωνιάδη και Δελγκάρη οι οποίοι τότε έκαναν έπικεφαλίδες πρώτης εελίδος με την σκεδόν έκδιωξη τους από τους συλλόγους τους και σήμερα είναι και πάλι στο προσκήνιο με τις μεταγραφές τους.

Οι Δομάζοι και Άντωνιάδης άποκλείστηκαν καν διά παντός από την ένδεκάδα του Παναθηναϊκού και ο Δελγκάρης από τον Όλυμπιακό.

Μετά την λήξη όμως του φετινού πρωταθλήματος και με τό άνοιγμα της σαιζόν των μεταγραφών παικτών οι υπόθεσεις των τριών αυτών παικτών άνακατέχτηκαν σάν τραπουλόχαρτα, κάποιοι έκκυε και τά «ά-τού» μοιράστηκαν σ' αυτούς που μπήκαν στο παγινίδι.

Έτσι άλέπουμε τόν διογμένο από τόν Όλυμπιακό Δελγκάρη να πηγαίνει στόν Παναθηναϊκό ο οποίος έδιωξε τούς Δομάζο και Άντωνιάδη. Ό διογμένος Άντωνιάδης πηγαίνει στόν Όλυμπιακό πού έδιωξε τόν Δελγκάρη και ο Δομάζος στήν ΑΕΚ πού δέν έδιωξε κανέναν.

Μύλος ή υπόθεση. Τά σωματεία, τά δύο τουλάχιστον, έδιωξαν τά «σάπια» και φορτώθηκαν τά «σάπια» άλλωνών ένν το τρίτο για νά μῆ μείνει έξω από τό χορό πήρε κι' αυτή ένα «σάπιο» άλλου σωματείου.. Έδώ θα θέλαμε νά κάναμε μιά διευκρίνιση. Για τούς τρεις αυτούς παίκτες οι όποιοι θεωρήθηκαν από πολλούς σάν άσσοι στός είδος τους, γράφαμε σύμφωνα με τις άποφάσεις των συλλόγων τους νά τούς διαγραφούν, λόγω άπειθαρχίας. Με τό δίκιο τους λοιπόν άπρεούν οι Έλληνες φίλαθλοι γι' αυτή την ποδοσφαιρική άνακατασούρα. Δέν μπορούν νά άκαταλάβουν, γιατί ένα σωματείο δέχεται έναν άπειθαρχο παίκτη από άλλο σωματείο την στιγμή πού τό ίδιο έδιωξε άπειθαρχο παίκτη.

Στην περίπτωση της ΑΕΚ, τά πράγματα μπερδεύονται άκόμη περισσότερο. Την ίδια στιγμή πού προσέλαβε τόν Πούσκα για προπονητή, προσέλαβε και τόν Δομάζο σάν παίκτη. Όλοι νυνώριζον ότι ο Πούσκας έχασε τό Κύπελλο πρωταθλητριών Εύρώπης στόν Γουέμπλεϋ από τόν Άγιαξ έξ αίτίας του Δομάζου πού έπέμενε στόν Άντωνιάδη στόν ιστορικό έκείνου τελικό μεταξύ Παναθηναϊκού και Άγιαξ.

Τό κύπελλο έκείνο σήμαινε δόξα και χρῆμα για τόν τότε προπονητή του Παναθηναϊκού. Και μετά τόν τελικό οι φῆμες όργιζαν περι παραπίσεως τού Πούσκα λόγω Δομάζου. Όως ο χρόνος νά ώρῃσσε και τούς δύο. Τό εύχόμαστε! Ό-μως είμαστε νυνώστες της άτμόσφαιρας πού έπικρατεί στις άρχές ος κάθε ελληνικό σωματείο και της άτμόσφαιρας πού ακολουθεί μετά τό πρώτο παραπάτημα.

Γνωρίζουμε επίσης την νοστροπία αυτών των παικτών από προηγουμένως περιπέτειές τους και φοβόμαστε ότι αυτές οι... φιλοφρονησεις των Έλληνικών Σωματείων θα άποδειχτούν προχειρότητες. Και από προχειρότητες έχει χερτάσει τό Έλληνικό ποδόσφαιρο.

LET'S NOT WORRY SO MUCH ABOUT WINNING

A view from the junior ranks
BY LEIF JENSEN

We continue the article by Mr M. W. Wells this week. He writes that the principle of providing an environment free from dangerous consequences, is the one which bears closer scrutiny.

Many children's sports environments have dangerous consequences for the majority of participants. With emphasis being placed on winning, the child has come to associate fun with success. In any sport, there has to be a loser — in some sports fare more losers than winners, and for winning and fun to be synonymous means that, for each competition, the majority cannot have fun — they're losers.

Is this an exaggeration? ... What is the first thing a parent asks his child when he comes in after his Saturday morning match? "Did you win?" He may follow that with "Did you play well?" but rarely will ask: "Did you have fun?"

The effect on the child of the emphasis placed by parents and the coach on winning is further reinforced by the increasingly prevalent arguments, jeering and even physical clashes between adults and referees or fellow spectators.

We can grant that young children vary in ability and in physical, social and psychological attributes from adults.

This may mean a reduction in the physical dimensions of the playing area.

The average adult footballer can cover the normal ground with three kicks, yet, we expect young children to play the same game when it may take them ten.

Modification of the rules, such as being attempted in South Australia with Australian Rules and New South Wales with basketball, provides us with an opportunity to fit the basic skills of a sport to the abilities and development of the players.

This process may even need to extend to having fewer players per team and modification of rules in order to reduce the complexity to a level which can be easily grasped by the child.

Last, and most important in the view of the writer, is the need to put FUN back into sport by making a conscious effort to de-emphasise winning.

Little leagues need to be restructured to place emphasis on participation and skill and de-emphasise competition and success. This approach can be supported by research which shows that competition during the stage of learning a skill is detrimental, tending to elicit the incorrect response.

In Canada, where the problem outlined in this paper is far more serious than it seems here, children's ice-hockey leagues are being organised on a pick-up, informal basis, where the coach and the referee is one and the same, no scores for individuals are kept, and parents are asked to sign a pledge that they will abide by the rules set down to control their behavior.

Parents of participating children attend a meeting at the beginning of the season and agree to play their roles in a sportsmanlike manner. Fines and bans on game attendance are imposed for non-adherence to these rules.

The recommendations from the local government authorities for this are as follows:

(1) That clubs recruit coaches whose first interest is that of the child and whose secondary interest is the sport.

(2) That each is required to attend coaching clinics and upgrade his training periodically.

(3) That coaches give each player equal game time.

(4) That the associations initiate a program to educate the adult community on the true purpose of minor sports programs and on what constitutes proper behavior when attending minor sports games.

(5) That associations continue their efforts to overcome violence in the minor sports program.

In conclusion, it is the opinion of the writer (and indeed me), that we need to make a commitment, similar to that of the Canadians, to 'clean up our act' in the junior sport, and this process must start in the schools.

When was the last time you heard kids laughing when involved in a game of soccer, organised by the 'better informed' adults?

LET'S PUT THE FUN BACK INTO CHILDREN'S SPORT!

What have you, the readers, got to say to that? Write to me now and let me know — L. G. Jensen, 16 Saturn St, South Caulfield, 3162.

1st Class

The 'Soccer Action' Hat Trick Diploma is available to any junior player who scored three or more goals in any league, cup or official school match. Friendly matches do not count.

Coaches are asked to supply the following information:

1. Name of the boy who scored the hat-trick (or more).
2. His age, address and the team for which he plays.
3. The team against which he scored the goals.
4. Date of game.
5. Send the information to: 'Soccer Action', 250 Spencer Street, Melbourne, Vic, and we will forward the certificate free of charge as an incentive to keep on scoring those goals!

The boys' names will also appear in our list of 'Hat-trick Heroes', published every week.
